

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Alexander Carmine Estates, LUCARNA Jersey, and SUPERLUXE & Partners unite to bring Fine Art to discerning homes across Europe

Alexander Carmine Estates and LUCARNA Jersey have announced an exclusive partnership with leading international fine art advisors SUPERLUXE & Partners. Together, the three organisations will introduce a curated selection of fine art to luxury audiences across Spain, Ibiza, the United Kingdom and Jersey, Channel Islands, with plans to expand the offering to Dubai later this year.

Combining Alexander Carmine Estates' bespoke client services, LUCARNA Jersey's refined interior architecture expertise and SUPERLUXE & Partner's forward-thinking art offering, the collaboration aims to redefine the way high-end property owners acquire, experience and preserve fine art.

SUPERLUXE & Partners is quickly becoming known for its innovative approach to fine art authentication and ownership, leveraging blockchain technology to ensure the integrity and provenance of each work. This new partnership will deliver access to exceptional art collections - both physical and digital from SUPERLUXE's entire portfolio of Collections - while offering clients complete peace of mind through enhanced transparency and security.

"We are excited to be working alongside Alexander Carmine Estates and Lucana Jersey to bring world-class art to some of Europe's most culturally vibrant destinations," said James A Matthewson, Founder, CEO and Curator of SUPERLUXE & Partners. "Our mission has always been to make the experience of art ownership more meaningful and more secure, and this partnership will allow us to reach a discerning audience that values both beauty and authenticity."

Through this collaboration, clients of Alexander Carmine and LUCARNA will have access to exclusive private viewings, immersive showcases and tailored advisory services designed to match each client's individual taste and design goals. The partnership officially launches this summer, with a series of VIP events to follow across the featured locations.

Speaking about the collaboration with SUPERLUXE & Partners, Daniel Buckross, Managing Director of Alexander Carmine Estates and LUCARNA Jersey said "This partnership represents a natural alignment of values. Together, we are connecting our clients with meaningful cultural experiences and timeless investments in fine art. It's a privilege to work with a partner that shares our commitment to quality, integrity and innovation."

About SUPERLUXE & Partners

Representing 16 artists globally and exclusively, and having curated over $60m of Art Under Management, SUPERLUXE leverages cutting-edge blockchain technology, providing both artists and collectors with unparalleled transparency and security. As a platform representing fine art to a global audience, SUPERLUXE is dedicated to ensuring the continued provenance and lasting protection of all parties. Mirroring the versatile nature of art, all collections represented by SUPERLUXE & Partners are multi-format (Originals, Limited Edition Prints, Art on Glass and Digital (NFT), supporting the continually evolving way that people experience art. This approach means that even physical works are certified and tagged with tamper-proof DNA tags linked to Blockchain Provenance records, allowing for consistently transparent and seamless exchanges between artists and collectors.

About Alexander Carmine Estates

Alexander Carmine Estates is a boutique real estate consultancy specialising in high-value property advisory and acquisition across Europe's most exclusive destinations. With a reputation for discretion, integrity and market insight, the firm offers bespoke solutions for private clients, family offices and international investors. From luxury villas in Ibiza to landmark residences in London, Alexander Carmine Estates curates access to truly extraordinary living spaces, while delivering an unparalleled standard of personal service.

About LUCARNA Jersey

LUCARNA Jersey is a prestigious and highly experienced interior architecture and interior design studio based in the heart of London and Jersey crafting stylish, bespoke interiors for the world's most exclusive residences. The studio offers highly personalised, professional and bespoke interior design and architectural services tailored to each client's unique vision, from project conception to completion.

With a presence in London, Marbella Jersey and Dubai, LUCARNA brings a global perspective to its design projects. The studio's attention to detail and commitment to building strong client relationships have earned it an impressive reputation within the prime and super-prime property industry across the United Kingdom and internationally.

LUCARNA's designs range from branding identity and products to large-scale bespoke-built experiences, specialising in residential, hospitality, retail, and multi-discipline projects.